Sponsored price only $600.00* (Normally $1795.00)

*Sponsored price available for people who work directly with children, NGO's or not-for-profits.

Child Protection Studies Programme participants learn to:

- Understand what abuse is and why it occurs.
- Recognise children at risk of abuse.
- Know how to respond appropriately and what to do immediately.

"From the first day of training I found myself looking at things differently. Although I have completed other training, the way this was presented and the resources provided gave me not only permission and authority, but also the responsibility to address abuse and neglect head on."
